What is an Anagram?

An anagram is when you take a word or phrase and rearrange it using each letter once to make a new word or phrase. For example, Kipling could be made into “lip king”.

Use the clues below to rearrange the anagram word into the correct answer.

For our example above a clue might say “In his classic children’s book we learn what would happen if a child was raised by wolves and made friends with a bear” and you are given the phrase “lip king” and rearrange the letters and you get Kipling. Try it with the phrases below! All answers are the last name of an author.
