Star Wars Crafts

Recommended for Ages 4 – 8

Are you a fan of Star Wars? Here are some simple Star Wars crafts and activities you can do at home.

Activity 1: Cosplay

Get ready to raid the closets! Dress like your favorite Star Wars characters using just what you already have around the house. Bathrobes for Jedi robes, headphones for Princess Leia hair buns, or your fanciest dress for Padmé Amidala. Then it's time for a Star Wars fashion show unlike any other. Can they guess who you are?

Activity 2: Write Your Name in Aurebesh

Aurebesh is a writing system used to represent spoken Galactic Basic and is the most commonly seen form of written language in the Star Wars franchise. It has a fully written alphabet and now you can write your name in Aurebesh using the handy alphabet below.

KUTMƏVNE AUREBESH

⌘	⌚	⌛	⌜	⌝	⌞	⌟	⌠	⌡	⌢
A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H	I	J
⌣	⌤	⌥	⌦	⌧	⌨	〈	〉	⌫	⌬
K	L	M	N	O	P	Q	R	S	T
⌭	⌮	⌯	⌰	⌱	⌲
U	V	W	X	Y	Z

Activity 3: Name That Star Wars Tune

The LA County Library online music resources, Freegal and Hoopla, have hours of Star Wars music. Test your knowledge of the saga's tunes with these incredible collections. Get your friends on a video conference, or the phone, and get ready to play. Simply choose your favorites, play a snippet of a track, and see if they can remember which film the selection is from. Whoever names the episode first wins a point. Play until someone earns six points to determine the ultimate Star Wars music connoisseur!

Activity 4: Make Your Own BB-8 Droid

You will need the following materials:

- 2 paper plates
- Paper
- Crayons, paints, or markers for coloring
- Scissors
- Stapler or glue

Cut one paper plate in half. Trim one half of the paper plate to just the inner circle, discarding the other pieces of the paper plate. This will be the head of your droid. Keep the other paper plate whole. This will be the body for your BB-8 droid. Decorate the paper plates by attaching pieces of paper with glue or simply coloring in with markers.

Glue the two paper plates together at the edge so that the smaller semi-circle sits on top of the whole circle.

Allow the craft to dry completely before playing or displaying.

Activity 5: Yoda Says

This is a Star Wars take on the popular party game, Simon Says. Speak like Yoda to win this game, you must.

Sentences like “Yoda, say. Friends or family do the action must. The last one standing the winner is. Yes, hrrmmm.”

The Secret of the Fortune Wookiee Origami Yoda Series, Book 3 by Tom Angleberger

With Dwight attending Tippet Academy this semester, the kids of McQuarrie Middle School are on their own—no Origami Yoda to give advice and help them navigate the treacherous waters of middle school. Then Sara gets a gift she says is from Dwight—a paper fortune-teller in the form of Chewbacca. It's a Fortune Wookiee, and it seems to give advice that's just as good as Yoda's—even if, in the hands of the girls, it seems too preoccupied with romance. In the meantime, Dwight is fitting in a little too well at Tippet. Has the unimaginable happened? Has Dwight become normal? It is up to his old friends at McQuarrie to remind their kooky friend that it is in his weirdness that his greatness lies.
